CONTINENTAL
CHOCOLATES

Two tense moments at last Sunday's Pan Hellenic v. St. George-Budapest match. Below, Hillhouse and Cole chase a loose ball, at the bottom Karyannis and Haffey strike fierce poses as they jump for a high ball.

THIS DILUTED SCOTCH ISN'T WHAT WE WANT!

Those thousands of Sydney fans who last Monday night watched on TV the magnificent Scots beat and humiliate England can cry their eyes out.

For, tragically enough, it's quite a different Scottish team that we will be seeing in a fortnight.

No doubt it may be still a fine side — but there is no substitute for greatness.

And the "Wembley Scots" were simply great.

How one is yearning to see the elegant Baxter, the dynamic Bremner, the formidable Gemmell and McKinnon or the sparkling Wallace and Lennox.

Alas, they are not coming. The Scots, because of the club commitments of several of their players, are sending a scratch side, which is not Scotland at all.

We dare Scotland to send a team like this to Wembley or on a tour of Europe.

Of course, they wouldn't. In fact, Europe wouldn't have them.

And, with due respect to all concerned, that's exactly what we should have done: called off the tour.

A full Scotland team would have whetted the appetite of fans.

ANTI-CLIMAX

But this Scottish team we are getting, coming days before Manchester United, may start off our international season with an anti-climax.

It's like stuffing in three huge hamburgers before one sits down to a superb dinner. As we are not getting what we ordered, the Scots should have been told that the tour was off.

Why should it always be the Australian fans who get the second (if not third) best of everything?

This whole sorry business proves once again what many of us have known already: the Scottish FA is one of the most unfortunate football organisations in the world.

It has no control over the Anglo-Scots (players who are with English clubs) and, in the off-season, not even with the Scot-Scots.

NO CONTROL

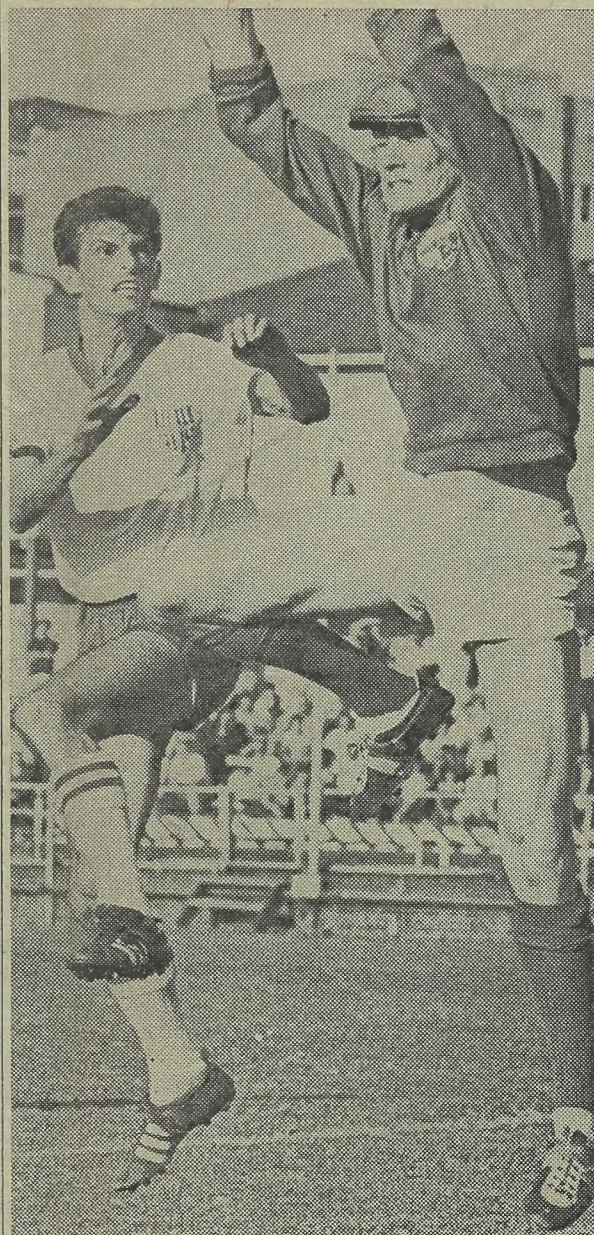

Time and again Scotland has failed to achieve any success at all at full international level — not because their players were untalented but because their organisation was weak.

If the Scottish FA has no control over its players — as it doesn't seem to have — they shouldn't be too hurt or surprised if we told them that we would be delighted to have the full Scotland team but are not interested in their third choices, not at the original rate, nor at a reduced rate.

The only possible merit in this Scottish visit lies in the fact that their team will be much weaker than expected and thus the three matches will be much closer.

But Australia wanted to see Scotland at their best and if it was weaker sparring partners we had wished for, we could have got any of half a dozen Asian international teams for just about peanuts.

We have had our fair share of ersatz-teams in the past; now we are entitled to the best.

Road to Rome

Only one reader tipped 10 right

Four readers are joint leaders in the SOCCER WORLD-LA FIAMMA contest where the first prize is a return trip to Italy by Alitalia.

The two newspaper offices received several hundred coupons in Section 3 but only one reader got the 10 match results right.

Section 4 appears for the last time in today's issue and must reach us by Saturday.

As this Contest is organised jointly by SOCCER WORLD and LA FIAMMA, readers can send in coupons to either newspaper.

The results are combined and the ultimate winner may be a reader of either newspaper.

However, to avoid complications, we ask our readers to send all their coupons to the newspaper where they have sent the others in the past weeks.

In other words, those who have been entering with their coupons at SOCCER WORLD, should continue to do so; those who have been sending theirs to LA FIAMMA, are also asked to keep sending all future coupons there.

This way we will avoid the possibility of having a "split" record of a contestant whose proper score could be, say, 80 but because he has been entering at both offices, has 30 in one place and 50 at the other.

Section 5 starts in next week's issue with the three Scotland matches on the coupon.

SYDNEY CLUB PATROL

Last weekend's First Division Sydney matches were watched by 18,300 spectators. After seven competition rounds (Anzac Day's split round attendance of nearly 12,000 not included) the total First Division attendance is 117,500. This represents 16,800 spectators per weekend, compared to last season's average figure of 13,445 for the entire competition. This season's total aggregate attendance figure of 117,500 spectators to date was not reached until the ninth round in 1966.

The wives of two Blacktown players, BOBBY KELLY and KENNY WILKINS, gave birth to baby sons at the same time and at the same hospital ward on May 4.

In a shock move this week Polonia skipper ZDISLAW NOWACKI was placed on transfer for $1,500 at his own request. There is a strong chance he may move to Melbourne in exchange for Polonia-Melbourne goalie Snopkowski.

DON PONT is the acting president of the Northern NSW Soccer Leagues while Sam Delves is on sick leave. Great changes in the Newcastle administration are expected within a few weeks.

The organising committee of the late RAY NEAL Benefit Fund will hold a cabaret-dance on May 17 at the new Bankstown Soccer Club, Stacey Street, Bankstown. A supper and floor show will be provided. Everybody welcome!

ADAM RECHNIEWSKI is Polonia's acting-president while Dr. Rossleigh is on his 11-week overseas trip.

LANTSLISKI, South Coast's new player from Israel, is still without a transfer clearance from the Israeli FA. Local officials are anxious for Lantsliski to take his place in the first team as they claim that his form at training stamp him as their best "import" since Jim Kelly.

ROGER HILLARY, the St. George-Budapest fullback, announced his engagement last week to Miss Lee Gamble. The wedding will take place on December 9, three weeks before John Warren, too, gets married.

MITA STOJANOVIC returns from Yugoslavia on Friday after eight months in his native Belgrade. The burly stopper is expected to return to Yugal's first team in a fortnight although he hasn't trained seriously since his departure.

RICK MURRAY, Blacktown's centre-forward, has returned after 18 months of active service in the army in South Vietnam.

MIKE JOHNSON, the former South Coast and Croatia player will get married on June 10 and sail for England with his wife four days later. Johnson plans to spend about a year in England and do a full FA coaching course.

VIC FERNANDEZ' New Zealand-born wife gave birth to a baby boy in Buenos Aires on April 23. The boy, the Fernandez' first child, has been named Victor, just like Dad.

Last week we mentioned that Melita Eagles had played four "quota" players in their forward-line against St. George-Budapest. Against Croatia last Saturday Polonia-NS also fielded four Australians in their forward-line: Woodward, Baker, Adamson and Calphy. Not bad for a so-called "rabidly nationalistic" club...

PAT HUGHES has been appointed captain of the Australian team against the Scottish XI. JOHN WARREN and BILLY RICE are the vice-captains.

BALGOWNIE have found an excellent combination in teenagers Richie De Santo on the left wing and Terry Waterman as left-inside. They made their debut with the first team against Sutherland with Waterman scoring a good goal.

The WARRINGAH Saints SFC, 21 years old this year, is one of Sydney's most enterprising outfits. Their top team includes, apart from four Australians, three Englishmen and one Frenchman, Dutchman, Dane and Italian apiece. President is Jack Parker, secretary Gus Heuvel and treasurer Dick Gee, former Prague stalwart.

PAT KIRGAN, the Wentworth Park assistant groundsman underwent an operation a fortnight ago. He is now recovering, but may be unable to resume his duties for some time.

Blacktown United have a new coach. He is JIMMY DOLAN, a former Auburn and Awaba (Newcastle) player.

HERMAN EGBERS, the fine Balgownie utility player, has requested a transfer to a local Illawarra District Association club Egbers claims that his studies prevent him from training regularly.

The son of NICK SZEGEDI, young SILVIO, is playing in the reserve team of Polonia. In fact, he is playing at right half, the spot where his father once starred for such great teams as Nagyarad (Hungary), Inter Milan and CF Barcelona.

GEOFF SLEIGHT, the former Prague winger, has signed a contract with Cheshire non-League club Macclesfield in England.

Croatia's young third grade goalkeeper, ALAN EASTER, broke a finger in his right hand and will be on the sidelines for three weeks. Last week young Jim Fraser was obliged to take the field in both third and second grades and may continue doing so until Easter is back on deck.

Extensions costing $55,000 are to be carried out to the clubhouse of the AUBURN SOCCER SPORTS CLUB in Northumberland Road, Auburn.

South Sydney Croatia have loaned forward GORDON NUTT to Manly. Nutt made his debut for his new club in the second grade last Sunday.

BOBBY WYATT, outside left of the English West Midlands League team Lower Gornal, is shortly due to join the Melbourne club Wilhelmina.

Sydney's goalkeeper of the moment, TERRY EATON of Melita Eagles, will be interviewed on Channel 9 at around 11.20 a.m. on Saturday, May 13.

Yugal speedster JOE ALAGICH may miss his team's next three or four matches. He is suffering from a heel injury and was unable to play against South Coast at Woonona last weekend.

Maroubra United have a one-point lead over Easts Blue in the EASTERN SUBURBS All-Age competition. Coronation with six points, trail Maroubra by three points. Stade Francais and Spartan United are still pointless and share last place.

ADRIAN RINGLAND, South Coast's Irish fullback, has recovered from his recent cartilage operation. He no longer hobbles on crutches and is keen to soon resume training.

SALVADOR ISAAC's wife gave birth to a baby girl on Anzac Day.

GINTER GAWLIK, Polonia's Polish international halfback, has hung up his boots permanently. The once brilliant Gawlik never regained his best form since returning from Poland 12 months ago and has now decided to call it a day after a chequered and colorful 16-year career.

TOM PERCY, a former official of the Newcastle and State Junior Association died in Newcastle last week at the age of 79. He was a well-known junior official for most of his life.

PADDY BONHAM, Croatia's Irish fullback, will not need a cartilage operation as it was first thought. Bonham was told by a Macquarie Street specialist that he had torn ligaments. He will be out of action for at least another three weeks.

KAZIMIR KULAK, a Polish forward from Okecie Warsaw, will join Polonia-NS in a month. Kulak's entry visa is in order. All he is waiting for is transport on an Australia-bound plane.

JIM ADAM, assistant coach of the Australian team, would be interested in coming to Sydney.

MATT COLLINS, Hakoah's new recruit from Cumberland, is showing up well in the seconds and may soon challenge for a berth in the first team's forward-line.

Manchester United are champs!

Manchester United will tour Australia as English League Champions. They clinched their seventh First Division title last Saturday by beating West Ham United 6-1 at Upton Park in London. A capacity crowd of 38,424 — including some 10,000 United fans — saw Manchester score four goals in the first 25 minutes.

English honors roll

SECOND DIVISION — Promoted: Wolves and Coventry. Relegated: Northampton and Bury.

THIRD DIVISION — Promoted: Queens Park Rangers. Relegated: Doncaster, Workington, Swansea and Darlington.

Busy weeks ahead

Forthcoming matches in the European Championships: Hungary v. Holland (May 10), Ireland v. Czechoslovakia and Poland v. Belgium (May 21), Denmark v. Hungary (May 24), Russia v. Austria (May 28), Sweden v. Portugal (June 1), Rumania v. Italy (June 25).

Celtic, Rangers well supported

At least 6,000 supporters will accompany Rangers to Nuremberg on May 31 for the European Cup winners' Cup final against Bayern Munchen. Rangers fans, from places as far apart as Chicago, Toronto and Nairobi will travel to Germany. The fans have chartered 18 planes and some 600 cars are expected to cross the Channel. In Lisbon, on May 25, Celtic hope to have the support of 3,500 of their own fans against Inter Milan in the Champions' Cup final. They also expect the Portuguese crowd to barrack for them.

Haller injured — out!

Bologna's controversial, much talked about German winger, Helmut Haller, is out for the rest of the season. Haller, who has been hankering for a transfer at the end of the current Italian season, was involved in a collision with the Atalanta full-back two weeks ago and 24 hours later underwent an urgent cartilage operation at the famous Rizzoli Orthopedic Clinic at Bologna.

Jackie Charlton England's choice

Jackie Charlton, the Leeds and England World Cup centre-half, was voted England's "Footballer of the Year" by the English Football Writers' Association. Charlton beat World Cup team-mate Geoff Hurst by two votes. Terry Hennessy of Notts Forest was third and Dave Mackay of Tottenham fourth.

Boys draw well

The West Germany v. England schoolboy match drew 85,000 spectators in the West Berlin Olympic Stadium. None of the players were older than 15. The Germans won 6-0.

Cup to provincials

The provincial Gyor caused a big surprise by beating Ferencvaros 3-2 in the final of the Hungarian Cup. However, showing the "esteem" this Cup is in Hungary, Ferencvaros rested three key players — for a competition match . . .

Seeler won't go

West German ace Uwe Seeler has refuted reports concerning his retirement "I'll quit only when the fans begin to boo me off the field," said Seeler who inspired his countrymen at last year's World Cup to the now famous "Uwe-Uwe" chant.

The Australian national team is unlikely to include Japan in their Asian tour itinerary later this year. The Japanese have heavy international commitments later this year. They will play hosts to the national teams of Mexico and Brazil, San Lorenzo of Argentina, Spartak Moscow and Burma, the 1966 Asian Games gold medallists.

● Peter Knowles, the talented Wolverhampton forward, is likely to be transferred soon.

● As from 1968, the two biggest competitions in Brazil — Rio and Sao Paulo — will be combined into one Super-league.

● Vasas of Budapest beat Fulham 2-0 at Oakland (Calif.) in a friendly match, watched by 15,000 spectators.

● Pele is adamant: he will not play in another World Cup. The Brazilian star, now 26, added he wants to play for at least six more years.

● AC Milan's Amarildo received a four-week suspension for making uncomplimentary remarks about a recent opponent.

● The Cuban national team is spending a few weeks in Hungary.

● Sparta Prague who visited Australia early this year will play Glasgow Rangers in Toronto, Canada, in a friendly international this week.

● In order to avoid large numbers of people gathering, the military junta now ruling Greece has temporarily cancelled all soccer matches.

● West Ham manager Ron Greenwood recently fined nine members of his reserve team — for "poor performances."

● The Brazilian Flamengo will play a combined Vasas-Ferencvaros team in Budapest on June 4.

● Fulvio Bernardini, the former Bologna coach, signed a two-year contract with Sampdoria.

● The recent French Cup semifinal between Lyon and Angoulême ended in a near-riot at St. Etienne when four players were ordered off and another two were carried off seriously injured. Fans of both teams brawled all around the ground for half an hour after the match.

● Schmulovitch, the Israeli forward who played for Hakoah four years ago, has been selected in Israel's team against the Scottish XI in Tel Aviv next week.

● North Korea have called off their proposed Central European and North African tour scheduled for next month. No reason was given for the surprise cancellation.

● Ex-Everton star Denis Stevens is now a team-mate of George Yardley in Tranmere Rovers. Stevens is sending his kindest regards, through SOCCER WORLD, to his best Sydney friend, Johnny Thomson.

● The Uruguayan Penarol is now on a European tour, taking in Italy, Germany, Belgium, Yugoslavia, England and Spain.

● Kubala is the likely successor to Daucik as Real Zaragoza's coach next season. Daucik is Kubala's father-in-law . . .

Brothers at helm

The Brazilian FA (CBD) has finally decided on a new course to regain the old glory. Sacked is just about the whole leadership that took the team to England last year: Vicente Feola, Dr. Gosling, Nascimento and Amaral. The joint bosses are the Moreira brothers — Aimore and Zeze — Paulo Machado de Carvalho, who were in charge in 1954, 1958 and 1962.

Yugoslavia out of Olympics

Yugoslavia, Uganda and Honduras have withdrawn from the Olympic qualifying rounds. Yugoslavia, gold medallists in 1960 and runners-up in 1952 and 1956, withdrew because of lack of suitable talent in their youth team at the moment. Their place in their qualifying group will be taken by Czechoslovakia. This strong group also includes Poland, the USSR and Albania.

Asian all-stars

Asia's best, players from Communist countries excepted, will play a series of matches against Asian national teams and English clubs Southampton and Leicester in the next few days. The All-Stars will play on May 19 against Malaysia, on May 20 against Southampton, on May 25 against Leicester and on May 28 against a combined Leicester-Southampton XI. All these games will be played in Malaysia — in Kuala Lumpur, Penang and Ipoh.

Goalie is top Scot

Celtic goalkeeper Ronnie Simpson has been named Scotland's "Player of the Year" by the Scottish Football Writers' Association. Simpson, a 36-year-old veteran, won his first cap against England at Wembley last month. Simpson, a former Newcastle star, won English FA Cup winner's medals in 1952 and 1955 with Newcastle United. He also played for the Scottish amateur team and represented Great Britain in the 1948 Olympic Games. As he has also won the Scottish Championship and Cup, should he win the European Cup with Celtic, his will be the best record ever of any British player.

Go North, man

The Swedish First Division this year includes a team from Lapland. The team, Holmsund, started off well by drawing 1-1 against GAIS in Goteborg. Most Southern Swedish clubs would dearly like to see Holmsund's relegation: Malmö, for example, lies 950 miles south of Holmsund!

SUMMING UP THE MATCHES

Match rating: * * * *

The magnitude of Croatia's defeat may shock many people but it was, surprisingly, a true indication of Polonia's superiority on the day. Polonia were in control for the whole match. Playing their fastest, most resolute football of the season, they literally swept aside a disorganised and bewildered Croatia, in which both defence and attack crumbled simultaneously. The football was dull for the first 30 minutes but once Polonia opened the score the writing was on the wall and two more goals in the last two minutes of the first half sealed Croatia's fate. The second half was one long Polonia domination and Croatia were lucky to concede only one more goal.

A draw was a fitting result as both teams failed to take their chances. The first half was scrappy and both sides wasted good scoring opportunities through poor shooting in front of goal. Soon after the resumption, in a rather harsh decision, a penalty was awarded against Melita, which Ninaus converted in his second attempt as his first shot was beautifully saved by Eaton. Canterbury had a chance to increase their lead when Mullan left the field injured for about 15 minutes, but failed to do so with Melita defending desperately. In the closing stages of the game, Melita threw everything in the attack and were rewarded when Falzon headed the equalizer.

Prague were dead unlucky to trail 0-2 at halftime — but in the second half were very fortunate not to be swamped. Thus the final score was a good indication of play during the entire 90 minutes and the difference in class between the teams. Prague surprised by holding APIA for 30 minutes with mobile, clever football in all departments and APIA were lucky to open the score with a penalty against the run of play. After the interval Prague ran out of steam and were submitted to almost continual pressure and did well to restrict the scoring. APIA hit the posts twice and had two goals disallowed.

Generally an uninspiring match which served to emphasise again how desperately Hakoah need a striker. It was left to halfback Walsh to demonstrate the art of goalscoring to his forward colleagues. Cumberland remain a real enigma. Belying their form against Canterbury they battled gamely against more skilful opponents after losing Geppert soon after the interval. The goal-shyness which, it seems, has become a regular part of both teams' play was very much in evidence all through the match despite both sides' reshuffled forward-lines.

The main difference between the teams in this lively, entertaining match was that South Coast took their chances much better than Yugal. The game was divided in three distinctive phases. South Coast were on top for the first 20 minutes although Yugal opened the score. Yugal were well on top until the 60th minute but they were unable to convert their at times crushing territorial superiority and greater skill into goals. The last half hour was all South Coast's. The locals added two goals and could easily have scored more. All three South Coast goals, incidentally, were scored with the head.

In the first half Pan Hellenic played good, constructive football and fully deserved their lead despite the gift they received in the harsh penalty of the season. In the second half, however, they strangely gave up their successful pattern and, for most of the period, defended with up to nine men. Strangely, we said, because there was nothing to defend themselves against: St. George, despite their vast territorial domination, never really looked like scoring and even their numerous attacks were inept. One scoring forward could have won the Saints the match which, in the first half, seemed all wrapped up.

Season's humdinger in Lambert Park cauldron

— By PAUL DEAN —

Just how long can APIA maintain their intact record? Here, in the eighth round, they face their biggest task so far when they meet Croatia.

Pan Hellenic and Hakoah, both favored to win, are poised to close the gap between themselves and Croatia.

Near the bottom Cumberland and Yugal will try to snatch some life-saving points.

The prospects:

St. George v.

South Coast

Despite many desperate permutations, the Saints are still madly searching for their right team.

Their defence is far too bohemian and light-hearted while their forwards are totally disjointed and leaderless.

We wouldn't be surprised if coach Laurie Hegyes made some further, rather drastic changes in his team in a bid to shake his men out of their lethargy.

C. DE BRUIN
(St. George)

South Coast plod on better than earlier expected and now with Tolson back in the business, they are hard to toss — especially in Sydney where they always play above themselves.

The provincials lay no claim to being a fancy side, but in speed, directness and resoluteness they have few peers.

The Saints, for some reason, usually do well against the Coast and it is only for that reason, none other, that we expect them to score a narrow win.

Watch: the fit Tolson's dynamic half-back play.

Polonia v.
Cumberland

This will be Polonia's big chance to continue their somewhat surprising climb towards the top and prove, in the process, that their trouncing of Croatia was no fluke.

Last week Szegedi's boys played like men inspired, hardly putting a foot wrong.

A repetition of that performance would certainly net them two more points.

Cumberland, despite their occasional spirited display, still lack sufficient class to be convincing.

On a given day they can fight desperately and snatch a point but at other times — especially at Mona Park — they succumb rather meekly.

Form suggests a Polonia victory but the result may be closer than one would expect after last week's showings.

Watch: Baker in Polonia returning to form.

Melita Eagles v.
Pan Hellenic

Fairly well equipped midfield and in defence, Melita will soon be on collision course with the threat of relegation unless they find a way to score goals.

Their forwards, in their present combination, are easily subdued and rubbed out of the match.

Perhaps Hunter's speed and Hewlett's experience would revitalise the forwards — if they can find a replacement for these two wing halves.

Pan Hellenic are on the march again, a formidable team on their day.

For some 35 minutes last week they played excellent football, before surprisingly retreating into defence.

A more sustained effort this time would certainly net them two more valuable points.

Watch: Blitz' thoughtful play.

ROY BLITZ (P. Hellenic)

Yugal v.
Prague

Two teams with a glorious past and an uncertain future will strive for points here and in the end may settle for a split decision.

Yugal lack punch and enough talent to have any strong influence in this year's competition and loom as a typical middle-class team.

They have far too many "emergency" players in their team to settle down to some good, constructive soccer.

Prague are certainly richer in talent and more systematic in their approach.

However, they suffer from the popular Sydney malady of goal-fright, needing far too many chances to score one goal.

They should still win, especially if their reliable key players come up to scratch.

Watch: Takac in Yugal approaching his best form.

APIA v.
Croatia

Undoubtedly the match of the round, if not of the season so far.

APIA, with eight successive wins under their belt, will have their stiffest test so far.

They will need to play better than in the past few weeks — but, strangely enough, against top opponents they usually lift their game.

Croatia's shattering defeat of last week was probably only a terrible lapse.

They are still a very fine team, capable of playing intelligent football.

Undoubtedly they are capable of stopping APIA's winning run — but we rather doubt if they will.

Watch: Young Campbell in APIA against the experienced Shepherd.

Hakoah v.
Canterbury

To add to their forward troubles, Hakoah now also experience difficulties with their quota players — as Gold's brief appearance proved last week.

If Fekete is back on deck this problem will be solved — but that still doesn't give them any scorers.

The constant pressure on the forwards to produce the goods doesn't make their task any easier and this often sends the whole team into a flap.

Canterbury are keen to continue their revival — and none keener than ex-Hakoah stars Ninaus and Hood.

These two will no doubt try to prove that their transfer was a mistake — and a couple of goals from them would be just the right type of proof.

However, Hakoah's superior class should ensure them the points even if they have to sweat for them.

Watch: The sparks when ex-team mates Marnoch and Ninaus clash.

SYDNEY SECOND DIVISION

More surprises tipped in wide open competition

— By CHARLES SPITERI —

Three of the "top four" were beaten, including the previously unbeaten Granville, last weekend.

Bankstown came back on the winning track after several poor displays and Corinthians failed to shake off ambitious Manly.

Sutherland joins the leaders after crushing Blacktown, and with a game in hand, are in a strong position.

North Bankstown, after an impressive start, lost to Marconi despite a reshuffled team.

Bankstown v. Hornsby-NE 2-0

Bankstown, most erratic and unpredictable this season, put up a great performance against Hornsby to add two precious points to their tally.

Hornsby were faster on the ball in midfield but played too much on the wings.

Both sides played attacking football and generally play was of high standard with plenty of thrills.

At half-time, the score was 1-0 through a goal in the 40th minute by right half White.

Bankstown sealed the game late in the second half when a move started by fullback Jamieson was converted by Bamforth.

Bankstown: Friedl; Jamieson, Fitzgerald; White (1), Hinkman, Turnbull; Stiffle, Tansley, Bamforth (1), Grange, Clarke.

Hornsby: McDonald; Lapwood, Vickers; Hogan, Armstrong, Maughan; Booth, Davies, Bastas, Barman, Linbry.

Sutherland v. Blacktown 7-4

Sutherland took only three minutes to score their first goal, and at half time had a commanding 5-0 lead.

In the second half, Blacktown rallied and with Stone coming up on the right wing, the Blacktown attack found a few holes in Sutherland's defence to notch four goals with Sutherland adding another two.

Sutherland: Pines; O'Brien, Hiron (1); Shrubsole, O'Reilly, Griffiths (Rattenbury); Burt, Keen (1), P. Cuciti (1), Davidson (3), S. Cuciti.

Blacktown: Italo; Stone (2), Putrie; Kelly (1 pen.), Wilkins, Sawina; Biddle, Rosic (o.g.), L. Mayday, P. Mayday, McDonald (1).

Lane Cove v. Balgownie 3-1

At Pottery Green, Lane Cove had their first complete success of the season with a convincing win against the more experienced Balgownie.

Playing negative, defensive football early in the competition, Lane Cove is improving steadily in attack and this win is a credit to their coach and a sure guide of what their opponents can expect in the future.

Lane Cove controlled all midfield play in the first half and led 1-0 at the break through a goal scored by Jock Aird.

Early in the second half, Lane Cove scored two quick goals to lead 3-0 but Balgownie came back with determined, dangerous attacks but it was only in the dying stages of the game that Balgownie scored their consolation goal.

Lane Cove: Reed; Clarke, Gamble; Carter, Mitchell, Jagger; Connor, Nadj, Thomas (1), Aird (1), Cooper (1).

Balgownie: unavailable.

Manly v. Corinthians 2-1

In a thrilling tussle at Graham Reserve that kept the crowd of 600 on its toes, Manly deserved to come out the winners.

Manly, playing their usual open type of football, were much faster on the ball and their quick and accurate interchanges between forwards gave Corinthians' defence many anxious moments.

But as in many other games this season, their stumbling block was Derek Griffin, who once again gave a brilliant goalkeeping display.

Manly: Tuinman; Langelaar, Brooks; Verrils, Campbell, Freeman; R. Jones (1), Ridding, G. Jones, Hughes, Waller (1).

Corinthians: Griffin; R. Clarke, G. Clarke; Woods, Herpe, Smith; Orr (1); Aney, Fannings, Russell, Preece.

Marconi v. North Bankstown 2-1

At Marconi Oval, North Bankstown were unlucky not to save at least one point against Marconi.

In a fast and exciting game, North Bankstown held a territorial advantage in the first half and in the 14th minute they took the lead through a good goal by Stafford.

Marconi equalised 12 minutes from half-time when Gastone Giacometti scored from a penalty.

The second-half was pretty even with both teams striving for the winning goal, which fell to Marconi late in the game when Hickey scored.

Marconi: Langelaar; Napta, Morn; Shultz, Milani, Zorato; Hickey (1), Giacometti (1 pen.), Okorn, Caccia, Hayes.

North Bankstown: Howes, Baber, Tyas, Cleverly, Watson, Duncan; Mula, Marchetto, Scabill, Roberts, Stafford (1).

Western Suburbs v. Granville 3-1

Granville can only blame themselves for their defeat because they failed to take advantage of their many opportunities.

West, playing with three reserves, showed tremendous fighting spirit.

They took the lead in the 6th minute when a hard shot by Davies from the penalty area was deflected by Pontekos into his own goal.

Granville equalised midway through the second half when Shepherd drove in a perfect pass by O'Neill from 20 yards out.

Only minutes later another opportunist goal by Davies put Wests in front and a beautiful shot by Griffin in the 83rd minute put the seal on the match.

Western Suburbs: Iro; Bastion, Apostolidis; Holmes, Bijkerk, Dyer; Omeros, Griffin (1), Whiteside, Davies (2), Smit.

Granville: Pontekos; Falzon (Baaks), Pendleton; Dean, Lorenzutta, Crelly; H. Gallagher, Day, Shepherd (1), O'Neill, J. Gallagher.

THIS WEEKEND

With the competition more wide open than ever, more surprises can be expected this weekend.

Highlight of the round should be the Hornsby-North End v. Manly clash at Pennant Hills Oval as both teams cannot afford to drop points if they want to retain their flattering positions at the top of the table.

Manly are playing the better football at the moment and are favored to win.

Granville should return to the winning list after last week's shock defeat as they may be too experienced for the improving Marconi.

The Sutherland-North Bankstown clash should result in a win for the exciting Shire team while Lane Cove, on last week's fine display, appear to have nothing to fear from Blacktown.

The Balgownie v. Bankstown game on the South Coast is hard to forecast, but the improving Bankstown are in with a more than even chance here.

Derek Griffin could again turn the tables Corinthians' way when they clash with Western Suburbs, despite the latter's more balanced team.

WITH THE AMATEURS

CONCORDIA NEW THREAT TO LEAD

— By KEITH GILMOUR —

Concordia threw out a challenge to the First Division leaders with a well-merited win over North Sydney, at Cammeray Park last Sunday.

Although the margin was only 1-0, through a goal from Karl Unterstein in the first half, Concordia had North Sydney's measure throughout the match.

Their defence dominated the North forwards, and more than made up for North's midfield advantage.

At Mackey Park, Marrickville scored seven of the 11 goals bagged in the game against Wenty, which gives it equal top position in the League with North Sydney.

Marrickville have the edge with a game in hand.

In Second Division, Auburn moved away from bottom of the table with a fine 3-1 win over Guildford at Progress Park.

Auburn, in scoring three goals, equalled the number they had scored in the first six matches in the competition.

The win followed a calculated risk by Auburn's selectors in promoting a number of 18-year-olds from the seconds to the firsts.

Auburn last year took over Cumberland junior club's under-16 side, and played them as a unit in Granville Association.

This year they moved up again as Auburn's second team.

With a dearth of goals and the distinct possibility of relegation looming even this early in the year, some of the seconds got their big chance, and made no mistake against their traditional rivals from nearby Guildford.

Auburn scored first after five minutes play, and with confidence born of early success, they proceeded to take a firm grip of the game, and were never headed.

Amongst their promoted players who shaped well were centre-back John Paul, inside-right Barry Moore, and inside-right Alan Thode.

Enmore have opened up a three point lead in Third Division, as second-placed Condell Park were defeated 5-1 by Gladesville-Hornsby at Somerville Park.

St. Marys, Dee Why and Greenacre jointly fill third place on 8 points, with Willoughby surprising by gaining a narrow win over St. Marys on their home oval at Northbridge.

COOK'S TOUR OF MELBOURNE

HELLAS—CROATIA CLASH IS GREATEST DRAWCARD

— By BOB LOW —

The main match this weekend will take place at Middle Park on Sunday when the home team, South Melbourne Hellas come to grips with the mercurial Croatia.

This should be an outstanding attraction, as I doubt if any other two sides are richer in talent.

Both have problems in defence but both attacks have plenty of striking power.

At Essendon on Saturday Lions face a stiff task against Makedonia who have a superior attack but a more vulnerable defence.

The bumpy Montgomery Park is likely to play tricks with the ball but Makedonia should win through.

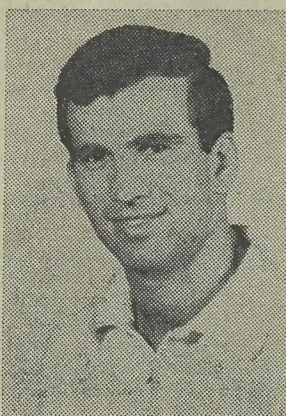

Slavia tackle Hakoah at Port Melbourne, also on Saturday, and with both playing a similar brand of soccer — direct and orthodox — there may be very little separating the sides at the finish.

However, with a more potent attack I fancy Hakoah to lift the points.

At Olympic Park on Saturday, Alexander will meet Footscray JUST and another surprise win for Alexander cannot be discounted.

JUST are much more skilful but they lack the penetration and pace of Alexander.

The class of State representative Frank Micic, however, may swing the match JUST's way.

FRANK MICIC (JUST)

On Sunday at St. Kilda one of the best games of the round will take place, bringing together the tenants of this new ground, Juventus and Melbourne.

This could be a mighty battle and may end in a division of points.

George Cross face Polonia who are on the way up.

Unless the Cross can produce a couple of new forwards quickly they may be given the run-around by the more stable and solid Polonia.

JUVENTUS DROPS
UNWILLING STAR

— From ALLAN CRISP in Adelaide —

Adelaide's selection shocks reached a peak last Saturday when Juventus omitted SA captain, Peter West from their team to play Polonia.

West was one of SA's nine nominations for the Australian squad from which the team to play Scotland will be chosen.

West was listed as a reserve against Polonia, as a disciplinary measure.

Juventus coach, Fulvio Pagani, said West's approach to training had been poor and he would have to show a lot more enthusiasm if he wanted to regain a place in the team.

USC Lion and SA goalkeeper, Wally Fedczyszyn who missed two successive games, reappeared against Elizabeth City on Saturday.

Lion broke through for their first win of the season against Elizabeth who were still without their reluctant players, John King and Joe Hemingway.

Port Adelaide, like Elizabeth, are finding First Division heavy going.

Last Saturday, Port battled manfully before crashing to Hellas by four goals.

Port were again without their night series star, John Glen who has played in only one game of the current league season.

Stan Muzyka, 20, will play his 100th senior game for USC Lion tomorrow, against Juventus at Hindmarsh.

The young defender will bring up his "century" with consecutive appearances, having never missed a game through injury or being dropped because of poor form.

Muzyka made his senior debut in 1964 when Lion were in Second Division.

He captained the SA junior colts team in 1961 and was an automatic choice in the SA youth team from 1962-64.

Provided there are no travel hitches, USC Lion's latest overseas import will arrive in Adelaide on Monday (May 15).

He is Czech forward Ladislav Hlavacek, from Skoda Boleslav.

Ironically, he is the son of a former Adelaide Polonia chairman.

Lion have also signed giant Scottish defender, John Cattinach, a former Motherwell and Morton player, who is due to arrive on June 2.

A half or fullback, Cattinach is 6ft. 5in. tall, and weighs 14 stone.

GEORGE CROSS SHOCK SLAVIA

With a reorganised side which included Neil Morson, the ace defender from Azzurri (WA), and Johnny Sanchez at inside forward, George Cross came close to causing a shock against Slavia.

The Cross led at one stage 3-0 but Slavia fought back late in the match and a last minute goal gave them a 4-4 draw.

Scorers: Slavia: Kerr, Savage, Bell, McGregor. George Cross: Horsfall (2), Evans, McPherson.

The other results:

Melbourne 3 d. Lions 1 (Abonyi 2, Kemp, Wilson).
Hakoah 3 d. Alexander 0 (Purdie, Armstrong, Smith).

Croatia 2 d. Polonia. 1 (McKay, Janczyk, Rau).

Makedonia 2 lost to South Melbourne-Hellas, 4 (Bedford, Nestorides, Damianakos, Ackerley, Grosdanov, Andonovski).

JUST 0 lost to Juventus 1 (Cross, penalty).

MELBOURNE LATEST

Ernie Grosz, the recently acquired George Cross keeper from Triestina, was dropped from the team against Slavia and replaced by local junior Petersen.

Jim Armstrong, the Hakoah inside forward, still tops the State League scorers with eight goals to his credit.

Keith Van der Poel, the former Wilhelmmina and JUST forward, was recently transferred to leading Second Division side Altona.

All is not well between new State coach Mike de Bruyckere and the State squad preparing for Manchester United as de Bruyckere is dissatisfied with the lack of co-operation by the clubs in releasing players for practice and also by the lethargic attitude of many of the "stars".

Trevor Kemp, the Melbourne wing half, who was placed on the transfer list some weeks ago, is now firmly established back in the first team and scored a cracking goal against Lions.

Marko Fode, the JUST keeper, has gone to Europe on his honeymoon and has been replaced in the Footscray team's goal by Sandor Kazi, a product of their juniors. Sandor's brother, Andrew, also plays in the JUST first team in attack.

SCOTS ADMIT, THE A.S.F. HOTLY DENIES FIASCO

Scotland's agonising team selection has produced an immense variety of newspaper comments throughout Australia, especially Sydney.

Of these, all published since the middle of last week, we have selected these as the most quotable quotes:

London, Tuesday. — The Scottish soccer squad to tour Australia later this month includes only two of the players who helped Scotland beat England's World Champions a fortnight ago.

Now Scotland has compromised by picking a party of bits and pieces, including half a dozen international-class players, and the remainder youngsters who haven't made their mark on British football.

Australia's hopes of proving herself in the international game by beating the team that beat the world champions are now meaningless.

If Australia does beat the Scots, people will say... "What did they beat? A team of second, and third, and even fourth, choice players on their summer holiday."

(Sun, May 2.)

"Mr. Bayutti said the team was an excellent one with a blend of youth and experience."

"Most of the players have played as full or under 23 internationals," he said.

"In Scotland selectors could pick three national teams of the same calibre and give any representative side a tough time," he said.

"This team is the nucleus of Scotland's plan to build a strong World Cup team for 1970."

(Mirror, May 2.)

it be labelled a Scottish international team.

"Our newly won prestige, both at international and club level, is too precious for that."

(Mirror, May 5.)

"In their enthusiasm, the Federation officials were snared."

It was obvious we were being taken for a ride months ago — but the fact of staging the first ever full international obviously allowed bull-dust to be blown into their eyes. (Or was it Scotch mist?)

Why on earth could they not have been tough and told the Scots to get back to haggis-bashing?

We should have the Scots we expected. The best or nothing.

We would not mind being thrashed by the best — because we would then be seeing the best in the world.

But to be insulted like this...!"

("Hotspur", Mirror, May 5.)

PLAYERS CONTEST

Nuttall retains his commanding lead

APIA's George Nuttall still enjoys a big overall lead in the SOCCER WORLD-LA FIAM-MA Players' Contest.

His consistently good displays week after week will make him hard to dislodge but the Contest is still in its early stages and it would only take some solid voting for his immediate pursuers for a close tussle to develop.

Della Rocca still leads in Victoria but there is a new leader in South Australia — Hellas' Peter Worthington.

Hellenic's Matt Jackson is the leader in Queensland, Giorgi (Azzurri) tops the Western Australian list and Morosini leads in Tasmania.

"Joe Venglos, the Australian soccer coach, believes the Scottish team to tour late this month, will be harder to beat than the team originally selected because its young players are striving for World Cup selection."

"Most of the players are full internationals, under 23 internationals, or on the verge of breaking into inter-national football."

"The players original-ly chosen, who are es-tablished in international football and now not making the trip would have taken it as a holi-day."

"This team will be flat out all the time because all its players are out to prove them-selves."

Of great help to navigators was the invention of the Octant (shown at left of our figure) and later, the Sextant (shown at right of our figure). These were used to measure angular distances between a heavenly body and the horizon, to observe altitudes so as to ascertain latitude and longitude. The length of the Octant's arc was one-eighth of a circle, the Sextant's arc was one-sixth of a circle. A small eye-piece enabled the user to take a sight of the horizon and, by adjustable mirrors, line up the reflection of the sun or star with the horizon. The resulting elevation was read on the arc, which is marked off in degrees.
